

Occupational Health Services

At TELUS Health Care Centres, our occupational health and medical services can help protect and support the well-being of your employees — mobile, on-site, in-clinic or virtually — while reducing costs and cultivating a productive workforce. Here are just some of the solutions we offer:

Medical directorship and advisory services

- Medical policy development and support
- On-site medical staffing
- Site medical audit

Health and wellness

- Remote on-site counselling
- Employee family assistance plans (EAP)
- Ergonomics (office, industrial)
- Job demand analysis
- Pre-employment standard development
- Gym facility design, staffing and management
- Fitness for duty physical assessments
- Education and training from injury prevention to wellness campaigns and more

Medical services

- Pre-employment medicals
- Periodic medicals
- Legislated medicals
- Independent medical evaluation
- Immigration, expatriate, repatriate examinations
- Travel health assessments
- Respirator fitness assessment and fit testing
- Surveillance programs
- Fitness for duty/return to work assessments
- Alcohol and drug testing

Disability management

- Case adjudication
- Case management
- Absence management
- Specialty referrals

With over 30 years of experience as a national provider, we have the expertise to create custom solutions.

For more information email client-solutions@telus.com